WOMEN COMMISSIONERS AT WORK.

THE IMMENSE AMOUNT OF BUSINESS
ALREADY BEFORE THEM.

A Memorial from the Walla Walla Board of Trade—The River Interests—A Committee from the South—Express Companies Interested—Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The usual heaps of mail matter were piled upon the big brown desk in the temporary office of the interstate commerce commission this morning at 10 o'clock. The first visitor of importance was Senator Dolph, of Oregon, who presented a memorial from the Walla Walla board of trade, in which the petitioners prayed that the crop of the present year be relieved from the strain of exorbitant freight charges.
Senator Dolph also presented a petition from the board of trade of Portland, Oregon.

The memorialists say they do not know whether the law forbids the making of rates to coast points so that the railroads may compete with the water routes and the Canadian Pacific railroad. They ask the commission to interpret the law and to give them the Portland board of trade, the dispensing power.

Congressman Butterworth, accompanied by several representatives of "river interests" asked the commission for an opportunity to be heard in opposition to the representatives of the Southern Railway and Steamship association heard on Saturday last.
Copies of the documents submitted by the railroad men were handed to the gentlemen, who will ask to morrow that an hour be set aside for the hearing of their side.

A committee from the Macon (Ga.) Chamber of Commerce, consisting of Messrs. W.
H. Ross, H. D. Johnson, S. Waldeman and J. F. Hanson, were then received by the commission. Their position was one in line with that taken by the Atlanta body on Saturday. They set forth that the effect of the enforcement of the fourth section of the act would be to increase through rates from 18 to 30 per cent beyond present prices, and would not reduce the tariff between intermediate points. This increase of through rates meant the destruction of not only the railroads, but of all great commercial interests in the south. They therefore prayed that the long and short haul section be not applied to southern railroads.

In reply to a letter from the Canadian express company, of Montreal, asking if the interstate commerce act applied to express companies, an answer was returned stating that an early opportunity would be given the express company to be heard on the subject; and, until such hearing took place, the commission would hold that the law did apply to express companies. Recess.

The interstate commerce commissioners have issued the following notice with the request that it be published: "Application for the official action of the commission shall be made by petition, which shall set forth the facts on which they are founded, and be verified by the oath of the applicant or of some authorized agent or attorney."

Only a Rumor After All.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—It is stated at the executive mansion that the published report of the purchase of a saddle horse for the use of the president has no other foundation than the fact that a horse has been purchased by Col. Lamont to drive to a buggy. The president has not thought of taking to equestrian exercise. The published reports about household gymnasiums for the president's use are also contradicted. Some boxes of such apparatus have been received from enterprising manufacturers, but have not been opened, and are not likely to be. The president is satisfied with the precautions that he has been taking in regard to his health, and does not contemplate seeking new forms of exercise.

Historic Battleship.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Secretary Whitney has decided to order that the historic battleship "Kearsarge," be repaired at Portsmouth, N. H., despite the fact that the old hulk is almost worn out. This decision encourages naval officers to hope that the "Hartford," another of the famous wooden vessels, will be kept afloat as long as possible.

Considering an Appointment.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The president has the appointment of a circuit judge for Illinois, to succeed Judge Treat, under consideration. Messrs. Morrison, Springer and others called at the White House to-day in this connection.

None Selected.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The president is finding unexpected difficulties in selecting the Pacific railroad investigating commission, and no assurance can yet be given as to when the appointment will be announced.

The Austrian Mission.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Ex-Governor Palmer says he has not asked the president for the Austrian mission, nor has the mission been offered to him.

Off on a Southern Trip.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Assistant Secretary of State Porter has gone to Tennessee for an extended visit.

Foul Play Feared.

MONTREAL, April 5.—Albert Holmer, a graduate of medicine, went out for a sleigh ride with two fellow graduates of McGill university, ten days ago. In the afternoon of the same day they passed successfully their final examinations for the degree of "M. D." and after driving six or seven miles were returning to the city, and stopped at a wayside hotel for refreshments.
Holmer indulged to excess and went outside, as it was thought, only for a moment, but did not return, although a large reward had been offered by his father, a rich merchant in Brantford, Ont., and persistent search for him has been in progress by detectives, not the least clew to what has become of him has been obtained. While in the bar of the hotel he exhibited a large sum in bank bills. There are fears that he has met with foul play.

scription of Leavitt, one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

A Saw Mill Boiler Explodes and Kills a Woman Three Hundred Feet Away.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—The boiler at George Crawford's saw mill, on the river below Mill-creek bridge, exploded between 9 and 10 a. m., killing Mrs. Lizzie C. Grant, standing in an adjoining shanty boat. The boat itself was mashed to pieces, although 300 feet distant. Mrs. Grant had just been out to a grave on West Sixth street, and had returned but three minutes before the explosion took place. The husband who was asleep in a bed twelve feet distant, was uninjured. The whole boiler went up 200 feet in the air, describing a curve, came down like an avalanche on the shanty boat, crushing it to pieces.

Mr. Grant is a brakeman for the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, and works nights, sleeping in the shanty boat during the day.
When the explosion took place Grant was fast asleep, but awoke, and had just got out of bed, when the iron mass came whistling down, passing within eight feet of her husband, and cutting Mrs. Grant literally in two. Mrs. Grant was twenty-one years old, and was only married to Grant three years.
She has no children. The couple are living with Mrs. Mollie McLean, a widow, whose husband was killed on the Big Four about fourteen months ago. She owned the shanty boat, but was away washing at the time the disaster took place. At the mill about four or five persons were more or less hurt by the explosion, but none fatally.

The engineer, Mike McCarthy, escaped without the slightest injury. The boilers were old and said to have been unsafe.
C. A. Grant, husband of the woman who was killed, was formerly engineer, and said some time ago that he did not consider the boilers safe. There are two of them in the battery, but only one let go. The building overhead was demolished, but the damage to the mill was not very large. Mrs. Grant's body was removed to the Gerke residence on Gest street, where the mother of the deceased resides.

The boat is about thirty feet long and was an unusually good one—worth perhaps $600. It lay high upon the river bank, about 600 feet west of Mill creek.

SAM SMALL DYING.

The Great Evangelist Close to the Dark River.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—News has been received that Sam Small, the co-worker of Sam Jones, is probably dying at his home in Atlanta. Mr. Jones has been almost prostrated for several days and this was the reason he preached such a short sermon at Musical Hall last night. Mr. Small has been very sick for several weeks. He went home after his memorable Boston campaign, suffering with hemorrhoids. The original trouble has led to blood poisoning, and there is little hope of his recovery.

In his sermon at St. Paul's church yesterday morning, Mr. Jones feelingly referred to his dying comrade, who for nearly two years has labored so earnestly to reclaim the fallen and sinful. Sam Small is one of the most noted journalists in the country and a most eloquent speaker. Mr. Jones will conclude his work in Cincinnati Tuesday night, and hasten at once to Atlanta to be present at the bedside of him whom he loves more than a brother.

Iowa's Liquor Laws.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 5.—County Attorney Phillips has discovered that many suits brought against druggists and other authorized liquor dealers to recover penalties incurred for technical violations of the law in which one-half of the penalty should go to the school fund and the other half to the informant. Some of these cases had been prosecuted to judgment and others had been dismissed. Investigation showed that they had been compromised by the parties upon payment to the informant of his moiety of the penalty, the school fund being ignored as to its share, where judgment had been entered, stipulations were on file that no execution should issue. These stipulations have been disregarded by Mr. Phillips and he has caused executions to issue, and will collect the sums due to the school fund. It becomes manifest daily that a ring has been organized of some constables, justices and lawyers with a view to obtain revenue for themselves, the gang being oblivious to the principles of temperance save as they can plunder for themselves.

Torpedoes on the Track.

PATERSON, N. J., April 5.—Some one placed torpedoes on the street-car tracks, at Main and Market streets, last night, and a passing car exploded them. The passengers were thoroughly frightened, but nobody was hurt. The loud explosions created almost a panic in the crowded thoroughfares. This is the third attempt made here to blow up street cars, but all efforts to find the perpetrators of the outrage are unavailing.

Great California Land Steal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 5.—The Federal grand jury has found thirty-three indictments for perjury and eight for conspiracy against Surveyor General Theodore Reichard, John A. Benson and John McNee, contractor, and others. The surveyor general's office has long been manipulated to swindle the government out of public lands and money paid for surveys. The frauds aggregate about $3,000,000.

Heavy Damage, But No One Hurt.

PITTSBURG, April 5.—Two freight trains were badly wrecked in a collision at Bolivar, Pa., on the Pennsylvania railroad, at 5 o'clock this morning. Two cars of cotton caught fire and were entirely consumed.
The tracks are so badly blocked that all trains are running via the Blairsville extension, and are from two to three hours late.
No person was hurt. The loss will be very heavy.

A McGlynn Adherent Suspended.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Rev. Dr. Richard Burtell has been suspended from the pastorate of the church of Epiphany on account of his presence at the Academy of Music when Dr. McGlynn spoke last Tuesday evening.
Rev. Henry A. Brann, prominent in his opposition to Henry George and his teachings, is mentioned as successor to Father Colton as pastor of St. Stephen's.

The defense in the Haddock murder trial murderer, but a man who answers the description of Leavitt, one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution.

TRROUBLES OF LABORERS.

CARPENTERS GO OUT ON A STRIKE BY THE THOUSANDS.

They Strike in Cincinnati for a Reduction in Hours and Increased Pay—Over Six Thousand Quit Work in Chicago—Lock-out in Rochester—Labor News.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—Nearly all the 1,100 carpenters and planing mill men employed in this city, Covington and Newport went out this morning. A great many quit Saturday night and did not return this morning.
Their demands are for nine hours and ten hours' pay, or $2.80 a day. Many employers are willing to grant the nine hours, but the men also want only eight hours on Saturday, and this demand the bosses do not feel like yielding to.

A rousing meeting of 300 carpenters and mill hands was held to-day at Workmen's hall. John Valerius presided, and C. A.
Rockwood and James Cannon acted as secretaries. Reports were heard from the various mills and shops, and resolutions were passed to stand firmly by their demands. Committees were appointed to visit Brockman, Myers, Loughhead, Richards, Behren, Griffith, Mills, Spellmire & Co., and other shops; Pogue's building, on Fourth street; the new bank building at Third and Walnut streets, where the men were reported still working, and persuade them to join the strikers. A committee of five was also appointed to visit all the carpenters working in Avondale and Clifton and induce them to quit work.

The men from Mill, Spellmire & Co., on Third street, reported that they were not allowed to talk to the workingmen, but were threatened with a ride in the patrol wagon.
The twenty-five men at Caleb Lingo's, on Hamilton pike, Twenty-fifth ward, were reported working, as Mr. Lingo had agreed to their demands. The sixty men were reported not working at E. Q. Loughhead & Co.'s because their boiler had burst. Lape & Bro.'s men on Central avenue were reported working, though their demands had not been agreed to. The men were also reported working at the Ohio planing mill, Poplar and Baymiller, and a committee was appointed to get them out. There are probably seventy-five shops and planing mills in the city and the men are nearly all out. A great many of the employees express themselves willing to grant the nine and $2.80 pay if all firms will agree to it. There will be no satisfactory settlement by tomorrow or Wednesday at least.

Freestone and marble yards throughout the city were generally deserted Saturday.
All work was suspended and will probably remain so until some satisfactory arrangements may be made. The employees say they made their demands early, so that the bosses would have plenty of time to agree to terms and make contracts accordingly, and that the advance will fall on those having building done. Stonecutters are warned from the city by the Stonecutters' union.
The hodcarriers' lookout is more serious.
The bricklayers depend upon them and several other building trades cannot work in consequence. The hodcarriers insist on thirty cents an hour, and nine hours a day.
Some of the stonecutters who went out on a strike returned Saturday, having been allowed to lower their demands of forty-five cents per hour for eight hours' work.

Topographical Union, No. 3, yesterday resolved to ask for the five cents increase per one thousand on composition which has been contemplated for some time. Their demand takes effect to-day—on morning papers forty-five cents, on afternoon papers forty-two cents, and on book-work forty-five cents.
The matter will probably be settled by arbitration.

The shop committee from C. Moerlein's brewery, 676 and 678 Elm street, reported that Moerlein had granted the demands of his men for nine hours and $2.80 pay.

In Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Over six thousand carpenters went out on a strike this morning. They have resolved that nothing shall be done in their line until all the bosses, or at least a great majority of them, have accorded to their demands—eight hours per day and thirty-five cents per hour. Thus far, only ninety employers have expressed a willingness to come to terms with the men, while the 300 other bosses have either positively refused or kept silent. Although the prospects are not as bright as had been expected, the strikers declare they will remain out to a man until they win the fight. The executive board of the central organization, the united carpenters' council, remained in session all day to manage the strike.

Amalgamated Association Scale.

PITTSBURG, April 5.—By to-morrow all of the scale proposals of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel workers will be filed in the general office for compilation and printing. A majority of the lodges have voted in favor of advancing the scale to the basis of $5.50 for puddling, while some advocate $6. There is also a general sentiment in favor of a change of the basis of the scale.
This change has been left to the decision of the June convention.

Hartford Painters Quit Work.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 5.—Three hundred journeyman painters of this city refused to go to work this morning because their demands for nine hours' work and $2.50 per day and weekly payments were not complied with.
The boss painters declare that they will not grant the request, and the men say they are prepared to sustain a long strike.

Lookout at Rochester.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 5.—Several of the principal building contractors declared a lockout this morning, until the masons and laborers employed by them agreed to work ten hours. About 150 men are idle.

The Light-Weight Champion.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Jack McAuliffe, the light-weight champion pugilist, left last night for Montreal, where he goes into training for his fight with Harry Gilmore at Toronto next Thursday night. When asked about the reported match between him and Jim Carney the Englishman, he said he was willing to give Carney a go but couldn't be running after him. If Carney means business he is invited to New York to sign articles.
McAuliffe will fight him to a finish marquis of Queensbury rules.

RELIEF FOR THE DROUGHT SUFFERERS.

A Bill to Postpone the Forced Collection of Taxes for the Year 1886.

GALVESTON, Tex., April 5.—A News special from Austin says: "A bill postponing on account of last year's drought the forced collection of taxes for the year until August next, is now in the governor's hands awaiting approval.
Although the bill passed by a two-thirds vote, many members of the legislature anticipate a veto, if the governor finds the measure is likely to embarrass the treasury. The prevailing drought and its seeming extension over the state is giving great concern here."

Members of the legislature freely say that

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will be delivered to any part of the city at 6 cents a week, or one year for $3.

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 5, 1887.

COLONEL A. S. BERRY, Democratic candidate for Governor, will speak at Brooksville to-morrow afternoon—April 6th.

The assessment of land in Fayette County has been lowered about thirteen per cent. by the State Board of Equalization.

The editors of the Republican should be a little more consistent and either stop "appropriating" from other papers, or quit talking about "furnishing" its contemporaries with "locals" and "editorials."

"The Racket," published monthly by Geo. H. Simonds, is the latest addition to Maysville newspapers. Brother Simonds is commencing young, and has the BULLETIN's best wishes for a profitable career in journalism.

PRESIDENT INGALLS, of the Big Four, says that the railroads have always received from the newspapers the value of all transportation furnished. The BULLETIN has always paid rather high for all the transportation it has received, and we suppose the same is true of other papers.

WATCH for the change that is bound to take place in a few years in Eastern Kentucky. A recent special from London, Ky., says: "If a squirrel were shot in the mountains of Southeastern Kentucky, it would likely fall on the head of a capitalist seeking investment in real estate." The boom is surely setting in in that region.

The Danville advocate says the speech of Senator James W. Bryan, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, lately delivered at that place, "completely captivated the large audience. In both matter and manner his speech was pleasing, and his eulogy of the Cleveland administration and his defense of the Democratic management of Kentucky affairs were greeted with great applause."

The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Honor of this State will meet in Louisville on the 12th of this month. This is one of the largest and most successful co-operative orders in this country. With assessments Nos. 200 and 201, benefits amounting to about $19,880,000 will have been paid upon 9,999 deaths in less than ten years. The lodge in this city will elect its delegate to the Grand Lodge this evening.

It is really too bad that the Republican has to "furnish its contemporaries with two-thirds of the locals they contain." While we think of it, perhaps that accounts for our neighbor's taking some of its locals out of our exchanges. A recent article on natural gas at Lexington—a special from that city—appeared in the Louisville Courier-Journal the day before it was published in the Republican. And it wasn't a special to the Republican, because it appeared as a local, perhaps our neighbors can explain how it all happened, though.

Of course, our Republican friends never buy votes or have noisy conventions. Down at Somerset, in Palaski County, the other day, the g. o. p. met in convention to nominate a candidate for the Senate and Legislature, and this is the way the great party of moral ideas acted:

At 8 o'clock fully 5,000 people were on the streets. Five candidates were placed in nomination. The convention was called to order by Chairman W. A. Morrow. The court-house was inadequate to accommodate the people, and the convention adjourned to the public square. A general row then ensued, which prevented the teller from taking a count, and the crowd finally dispersed without making a nomination. The county instructed for L. D. Parker for Senator. A disagreement arose among the people about the Representative, and at ten o'clock fully one-half the people were drunk. A special police was summoned to keep the crowd in order, and at 2 o'clock the jail did not have the capacity to accommodate its guests. At 4 o'clock four men were placed in a room at a hotel and locked up, to be kept until they could be tried.

The convention was the most disgraceful ever seen in Somerset, and it is hard to-day to find a man who is willing to admit that he is a Republican. At least one thousand people were drunk, and, while police did good work, there were at least fifty fights. The convention finally adjourned without making a nomination, and the Democrats have a fine show for success at the August election.

A Distinctly American Decoration.

It is getting to pass at our theatres that the managers will presently have to provide a special section, with ample troughs and conduits connecting with the sewer, as a tobacco chewers' sty. I have often noticed in the court rooms and corridors and ante-rooms of our public buildings how the decorations were enhanced by original designs in sepia. The cuspidor is a familiar accessory of every hotel parlor, and a good many private ones. There are aesthetic cuspidors made specially for the drawing room, and humble—but capacious ones for the bar room. But it is, anyhow, impossible to wander anywhere in public without encountering something, from the modest box of sawdust up to the gilded majolica urn, provided for the salvation of the carpet on the floor.

The theatres have not yet adopted the cuspidor as an attachment of every seat. Consequently the men who chew tobacco during a performance are reduced to the more primitive methods of relieving their overburdened mouths. The other evening, at Mr. Harrigan's theatre, my neighbor was a well known man about town. He was sumptuously arrayed in evening dress, and when he came in wore a brand new silk hat of the latest London make, which he deposited under his seat. When he prepared to depart he discovered that the person behind him had adapted his head gear to the uses of the old time sawdust box, and had resorted to it so diligently that its value as a hat was over for good and all. The disgusted flaneur had to go home in a coach, swearing that he would hold the management responsible for his defiled title. The author of its destruction sat placidly chewing his cud while his victim was denouncing him, and said never a word in reply.—Alfred Trumble in New York News.

California Coolies' Lodging House.

One of the lodging houses, which holds nearly 1,000 persons, may be taken as a fair specimen of the coolie's way of life. The building, which was originally a four story structure, has been converted into double this number of floors. In the main hall on the top and lower floors are arrangements for cooking, and each lodger has the privilege of using the common fire. Adjoining this cooperative kitchen are the water closets, always out of repair, and it is no uncommon sight to see the Chinese standing on bits of brick and stone and placidly cooking, while the floor is covered with the overflow from the choked closets, and the atmosphere is like that of a huge cattle stable at the east when thrown open on a winter morning. The coolie seems to be able to live without air, for in the closets that serve as rooms in the great human hive there are never any means of ventilation, day or night. Yet the occupants appear to thrive, and if capacity to do hard work is a sign of health they are in good physical condition.—George H. Fitch in Cosmopolitan.

Ex-County Officials Indicted.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 5.—The grand jury has found thirty-two bills. Among the indictments there are six which charge ex-Sheriff William R. Milligan with perjury, and one charging him with holding public money. One indictment charges ex-Treasurer Samuel W. Raymond with conspiracy, one with holding public money, and one with embezzlement. Ex-probate clerk, Arthur T. Bartels, is charged in different indictments with embezzlement, withholding public money and falsifying public records. William L. Milligan, deputy sheriff, is indicted for perjury in swearing falsely to accounts of the sheriff. There are two indictments for keeping gambling houses, and in these cases the complaining witness is also indicted for gambling.

Good By Man and Money.

DETROIT, Mich., April 5.—M. Stanton, manager of the Detroit branch of George A. Sistera & Sons, brokers, left here a few days ago, ostensibly for the east, and has not been heard from since. It is reported that he left the train before he reached Niagara Falls, and that he has become a member of the American colony in the queen's dominion. Before leaving here he abstracted between $50,000 and $60,000 of the firm's money. Stanton is connected with some of the best families, and his flight has caused a great sensation. He is a married man, and has several interesting children.

Schooner Stranded and Burned.

DXBURY, Mass., April 5.—Schooner Oceanus stranded four miles north of Gurnet light, at 6:15 p. m., yesterday. She was loaded with lime from Rockland, Me., bound to New York. The crew were saved and are at this station. The vessel was burned by the slacking of the lime.

Lynching Feared.

GLEN MARY, Tenn., April 5.—Theophilus Griffiths, of Scranton, Pa., was shot and instantly killed here last night by Joseph Brooks, both coal miners. Brooks is now under arrest, and as public opinion is strongly against him, it is feared he will be severed.

A Supposed Suicide.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—A. N. Sutton, a partner in the Cincinnati Drug and Chemical company, died at 5 a. m., at the Marine hospital, of an overdose of morphine taken last night. Suicide is suspected, as deceased had been drinking heavily. He leaves a wife and no children on Third street, Covington.

Death From Suffocation.

BOSTON, April 5.—The Charles River hotel, Brighton, was partly destroyed by fire at 1:30 a. m. to-day. Cause and amount of loss unknown. Joseph Littlefield, who was sleeping in the house, lost his life by suffocation.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.

Shakespeare tells how this can be accomplished in one of his immortal plays, but debts to nature must be paid on demand unless days of grace be obtained through the use of Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." It is not a "cure all" but invaluable for sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumption, and all diseases of the pulmonary and other organs, caused by scrofula or "bad blood." Scrofulous ulcers, swellings and tumors are cured by its wonderful alternative action. By druggists.

ELECTION AT ABERDEEN.

The Democrats Victorious in Both Town and Township—Quiet Time—The Result.

Yesterday was municipal and township election day over in Ohio. At Aberdeen there was a warm contest, especially over the township officers, but everything passed off quietly. There were no fights, no disturbances reported, and but little or no drunkenness.

The Democrats came out victorious, electing their entire township ticket, and all their municipal ticket, except one member of Council. The following is the vote on the town ticket:

THE RESULT AT CINCINNATI.

He is a recent graduate of the college at Baltimore, and his friends will be glad to accord him a cordial welcome to our city.

A PARTY of railroad officials and contractors, led by Colonel Childe, chief engineer, passed through town on a tour of inspection of the Maysville and Big Sandy road. They left Newport Saturday and are making the trip on horseback. The trip is partly for the purpose, it is said, of locating depots and side tracks, but the principal object in view is to see what progress has been made, and what work yet remains to be done to complete the road.

JACOB WILLIAMS, colored, was tried yesterday before Judge Coons and a jury on a writ of lunacy. He is the party whom Deputy Marshal Guilfoyle arrested Sunday night and locked up for safe keeping, and whose name was given yesterday as Jacob Greene. Some of Williams' friends have been "calling up the spirits" of late, and he is badly off on the subject. He tried to give an exhibition of the power that was in him, as he thought, and pounded a table and shoved it about over the court room until stopped by order of the court. The jury found him of sound mind, and he was released.

W. C. PELHAM received an order yesterday from a party at "Port of Spain, Trinidad, B. W. I." for one of his "foundation machines" for the manufacture of honey comb. The invention is becoming widely known, and does the work for which it was intended in a most satisfactory manner.

AN enterprising citizen of Dover offers to make a free gift to the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company of all the land required for buildings, side tracks, &c., if the car shops are located at that place. The people down there seem to be in earnest, and are working industriously for a boom.

AN attempt was made about 3 o'clock yesterday morning to enter the residence of Charles Miller, on Second street, west of Short. The family was aroused by the noise, and the parties fled on Mr. Miller's appearing at an upper window. A few parting shots hastened the would-be burglars in their flight, but did no harm.

EDUCATIONAL INTEREST.

Plain Talk by a Rectorville Teacher on the Subject of Our Common Schools.

In this land of republican institutions and democratic citizens, the only safeguard to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" guaranteed by the constitution, is general education. General education of rich and poor can only be obtained by the State institution called "the common school."

"The common school! oh, let its light shine through her country's story; Here lies her wealth, her strength, her might, Here rests her future glory."

Yes, indeed, unless the lamp of knowledge send its rays into the minds and hearts, and even into the pockets of the citizens of our generation, our country's story will be a repetition of the history of the older republics. The United States of America will have become the Nobe of nations, standing childless and friendless, her withered hand holding not even the urn which once contained her jewels.

The grasping avariciousness of the millionaires of this generation has disseminated itself into every department of life, and the desire to accumulate wealth overrides, to-day, every other consideration in the minds of quite a majority of the American people.

This tendency to evil grew out of the great civil war, out of gigantic gambling agencies and political corruptions. Unless it can be counteracted by an intelligent incoming generation, civil and religious freedom will again take the wings of her emblematic eagle and depart from the earth.

It is no time to sleep, nor to divide the forces of education because of pettiness; but the time to let the morning sun of the day of education illuminate the gilded temples of science, and its meridian beams kiss the flower-bespangled grounds contiguous thereto. It is not the time to squeal when the development of the child's mind demands the expenditure of a few cents for a new book, but the time to furnish cheerfully not only a whole library of text books, but to enliven the halls of the pupils school-home with the product of the easel, the lithographic press, and the instruments demanded for scientific research—for the acquisition of knowledge.

This is not the time to make yourself a party to the murder of your country, but the time to let the light begin to "shine through her story;" the time to give your cordial support to the cause of education; the time to inculcate in the minds of your children a desire to gain imperishable riches by owning a wealth of mind; the time to bring home and school into closer relations; the time to make home a pleasant place for the old and the school the desideratum of the young. Can it be done? Yes; as surely as education, good-breeding and Christianity will make a generation, so surely will the same qualifications, becoming general through the medium of our schools, make a nation of gentlemen who will perpetuate the principles of our God-given republic. Then old and young alike enjoying the advantages of knowledge and peace, secured by intelligent good will of man for man, may compactly accept a millennium much nearer than that by prophet bards foretold.

AFGHANISTAN SOLD OUT.

A BELIEF THAT THE COUNTRY HAS BEEN SOLD TO THE BRITISH.

Reports that Greatly Alarm the Amir. The British Authorities in India Appeals to—Newspaper Men Shut Out of the Spanish Parliament—Notes.

LONDON, April 5.—A Lahore paper announces that the ameer of Afghanistan is much alarmed over the discover that a number of native tribes are combining against him, and has appealed to the Indian authorities for help and advice. The Afghans declare that the country has been secretly sold to the British, and that the railway to Candahar has been sanctioned by the ameer to facilitate their advance.

The fanatical element of the people is rampant against the ameer, who has removed his treasure to Fyzabad, whether he will retire himself if he is defeated by his dissatisfied subjects. Other accounts say that the Ghilzais are restless under the ameer's tyranny and have asked the Indian authorities to depose him. The Pioneer asserts that Lord Dufferin, the British viceroy, received disquieting news from Afghanistan while at Allahabad recently.

In Remembrance of Crowley.

QUEENSTOWN, April 5.—A remarkable demonstration, in which over twenty thousand persons took part, was held yesterday at the cemetery of Youghal, in the County Cork. The occasion was the twentieth anniversary of the shooting of Peter O'Neill Crowley, who, during the rising in 1867, in company with Capt. McClure, was surrounded by the military and police in Kilcoony wood, outside Mitchelstown, and was subsequently shot dead as he was making his escape across the river.

A beautiful and costly monument had been erected in the cemetery to Crowley's memory, and yesterday it was unveiled. Special trains brought people from all parts of the country, and over twenty bands were present. Only Irish and American flags were displayed.

Indignant Newspaper Men.

MADRID, April 5.—In consequence of the finding of a case of gunpowder, with a cartridge and fuse attached, in the doorway of his Bureau, the President of the Cortes has canceled all cards of admission to the parliament buildings held by journalists, both foreign and native. The newspaper men are very indignant at this action.

German Tyranny.

PARIS, April 5.—German agents are making domiciliary visits in the Reichland with the object of discovering any documents that would show their possessors' connection with the Deafleis League. Orders have been given by the German authorities to destroy the French tri-color flags preserved in the provincial mairies.

The "Scythia" All Right.

BOSTON, April 5.—The special train chartered by the local agent of the Cunard line, Mr. Martin left here at 3:15 this morning with about thirty reporters aboard to investigate the story of the Scythia disaster. When the train arrived at Scituate it was daylight and the small army of scribes trudged three miles through a heavy snow to the shore. The sea was running mountains high and dashing far up over the cliffs but no sign of a stranded steamer or a wreck of any kind could be seen. The party made as thorough an investigation as was possible, but without avail. There was surely no wreck. The reporters returned to Boston and have since been trying to find out how the rumor originated. It was believed here by almost everybody the steamer was due yesterday and owing to the interruption of telegraphic communication on account of the storm there was nothing to base a denial on. The Cunard agent thinks the captain of the Scythia held well out to sea and made no endeavor to reach port in the storm.

Women at the Polls.

DETROIT, Mich., April 5.—The election is progressing quietly in this city. The greatest interest centers about the prohibitory amendment vote. The sensational feature of the day is the number of women who are out at nearly all the polls laboring faithfully and like beavers for "the cause," while jostling them for elbow room are the saloon proprietors, all of whom have closed their places of business and are laboring jealously to kill the amendment. It is estimated that Wayne county will give 20,000 to 25,000 majority against the prohibition measure, while the upper peninsula will also swing into line with a fair majority. Reports from all towns in the lower peninsula are conflicting—both sides claiming the advantage at noon. The result is very uncertain, and victory either way will be barely won.

Gallagher Won.

BUFFALO, April 5.—The wrestling match between Roundsman James Quigley, of the New York police, and ex-Police Denny Gallagher, of this city, took place at the Main Street rink last evening, and was awarded to Gallagher. The match was best two in three, first to be side hold without harness, three points down, and the second catch-as-catch-can, two points down. Gallagher won the first bout in one minute. The next bout lasted ten minutes and was very evenly contested. Gallagher threw Quigley and claimed a foul but the referee decided against the claim. The men again took hold and after a three minute struggle Gallagher threw Quigley squarely and won the match. Matsudi Sorakichi challenged the winner. Mayor Becker presided at the contest.

Challenge in Trotting.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Nathan L. Strauss is anxious to trot his bay gelding, Majolica, against any horse in the country, barring Harry Wilkes. The challenger may name any purse he likes, and Mr. Strauss will cover it.

Carpet Sweeper Factory Burned.

GOSHEN, Ind., April 5.—Fire this morning partially destroyed the immense carpet sweeper factory of E. W. Walker & Co., this city. Loss $11,000; fully insured.

The Same Old Story.

CHICAGO, April 5.—Driven to malice by jealousy, Herman Knauf, Saturday evening, shot and seriously wounded his sweetheart, Lizzie Zinke, and then shot himself. His wound may result fatally.

The jury in the Schwartz-Watts express robbery case, Morris, Ill., attended church Sunday. Minister Axtell, learning of their presence, delivered a most sensational sermon, prejudicial to the prisoners. The incident will be made the basis for a new trial in case of conviction.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a Terse and Spicy Manner.

The collapse of a church at Louguolassa, Sicily, killed forty of the congregation.

Fire at Clarksville, Tenn., Sunday destroyed $200,000 worth of residences and stores.

Jealous Herman Knauf, Saturday evening at Chicago, shot his sweetheart, Lizzie Zinke and himself. Both may die.

Chinese opium firms, unsuccessful in an attempt to smuggle their drug into the Sandwich Islands, offer $5,000 for King Kalakaua's head.

The fashionable hotel Del Monte, Monterey, Cal., burned Saturday night. Several hundred guests had narrow escapes. Incendiary.

At Polo, Austria, Saturday night, the ground under the amphitheater sunk and the building disappeared. Dense vapors ascend from the chasm.

The Cunard steamship Scythia arrived safely at Boston, Sunday. The sensational rumors of a disaster on the coast at Scituate were entirely groundless.

The feeling against the new crimes bill is strong and bitter in Ireland that if arms were only supplied a most disastrous revolution, it is said, would follow.

The steamer Saragossa from Baltimore for Port Antonio, founded at sea, 350 miles north of Watting's Island. The crew were saved and landed at Bermuda.

In a fight over business troubles between A. C. Brown and M. A. Cockerham, of Coushatta, La., Sunday, Brown and Henry Schenck, a son-in-law of Cockerham, were killed.

Mrs. Watson, wife of a New York merchant, supposed to have been killed in the Leetonia (O.) railroad accident, and still rumored to be the victim of the roadside murder at Rahway, N. J., has turned up alive in Omaha.

Foreign.

Three persons concerned in the attempt on the czar's life have been hanged and a large number of officers arrested. Revolts, instigated by Russians, are reported in Roumania, together with an attempt to assassinate the prime minister. The Parnellites feel confident of defeating the coercion bill. Churchill comes out with an approval of the government's proceedings. At Pola, Austria, the ground under the amphitheater sank and the building went from view. Vapors ascend from the immense chasm opened. DeGiers has triumphed over Katkoff, and will continue as Russian foreign minister. The German National Liberal opposition to the ecclesiastical bill is dying away, but the attitude of the hostile Center remains unyielding.
